Penang

Penang is one of Malaysia's most famous resort destinations. Its northern shoreline is characterised by expansive stretches of golden sand and the glittering waters of the Straits of Malacca. Batu Ferringhi, situated along the coastal road northwest of Georgetown, is the most popular beach in Penang, lined with a string of international-standard hotels and resorts. Soak in the sun or unwind on the beach and enjoy a host of aquatic thrills from banana boat rides to canoeing, jet skiing or parasailing. As the sun sets, Batu Ferringhi comes alive with a carnival-like atmosphere with an open-air bazaar selling anything from ornate curios to enticing souvenir items. And when it comes to food, Penang is second to none! The delightful variety of Penang food reflects the different cooking styles and tastes of its multi-cultural population. There is a mouth-watering selection of Chinese, Malay, Indian and Nyonya cuisine to sample, not to mention the irresistible hawker fare.

GEORGETOWN - ENCHANTING LEGACY

Duration: 4 hours

Highlights: The Union Jack was hoisted on 11 August 1786 and the island was named Prince of Wales by Sir Francis Light. Take a glimpse into the past and visit the famous Sarkis brothers who built the Raffles Hotel in Singapore. Next stop is at The Garage. Formerly a British automobile sales and service centre, it is now a cultural centre selling antiques, art, handicrafts, jewellery and local products. Visit the privately owned mansion, Cheong Fatt Tze, which was once the home of a rags-to-riches Chinese-born immigrant. Take a guided tour of this opulent mansion built in the 1880s. Bypass or stop at a Christian cemetery, the final resting place of European dignitaries and pioneers such as Sir Francis Light, Sir Thomas Raffles and Thomas Leonowens, husband of Anna Leonowens of the King & I fame.
