

Hoi An

The ancient town of Hoi An was one of the main trading centres of Southeast Asia in the 16th century and was declared a World Cultural Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1999. This fascinating town has a distinctive Chinese atmosphere with low tiled-roof houses, narrow streets and laneways, rare timbers and lavish lacquer panels decorated with Chinese characters. Vehicles are banned from the 'old quarter', which makes it an enchanting place to walk around, shop, dine and sightsee. Hoi An is bordered on one side by the river and on another side by the beach.
